

Have you updated your details recently?

Do we have your current email address?

If we don't then you will be missing out on our newsletters and what is happening in your regions.

You can update all your contactable details by signing into our website or by sending an email to the Assistant Secretary General, Michael Lucas, and he will update the details for you.